Trips that will energize your heart and mind alike

The appeal of Osaka as a tourist destination is not confined to popular sightseeing attractions within the City, but rather extends throughout Osaka Prefecture. As the COVID-19 pandemic continues, people's approach to travel is changing, and attention is focusing on local trips by small groups, a phenomenon known as micro-tourism. Reflecting that trend, we've put together 11 itineraries that connect appealing sightseeing destinations across the prefecture, including natural attractions, the outdoors, history, and hot springs, via drives, walks, bicycle trips, and other means so that people of every age can enjoy them. After consulting this guidebook and taking steps to keep yourself safe from infection, you'll be ready to take a trip to look for new excitement and other discoveries, either by yourself or with friends or family.

Guidebook layout

This guidebook divides Osaka Prefecture outside the City of Osaka into three areas—Hokuseitsu, Kawachi, and Senshu—and introduces example itineraries for each of them, along with the Mozu-Furuichi Kofun Group, which is Osaka's only World Heritage site. Itineraries are accompanied by an introduction to each area's hands-on or experiential facilities, local delicacies, and gourmet opportunities, along with other information. In addition, you'll find a feature introducing upcoming Expo 2025 Osaka, Kansai, Japan at the end of the guidebook.

Itinerary 1 / A trip of nature walks to experience the history of industry and the four seasons

Learning while having fun with a tour of exhibits and various experiences.

This hands-on museum, which is dedicated to dietary education, was founded based on the desire of Ando Momofuku, the inventor of chicken ramen, to communicate the importance of invention and discovery to children. My CUPNOODLES Factory, the only place in the world where you can make your very own original "cup noodles" flavor, is popular with visitors.

CUPNOODLES Museum Osaka Ikeda

[Address] 8-25 Masumicho, Ikeda City [Phone] 072-752-3484 [Hours] 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (Doors close at 3:30 p.m.) [Closed] Tuesdays and New Year's (When Tuesday is a holiday, closed the following day.) [Admission] Free (Admission to Chicken Ramen Factory: elementary school students ¥600, junior high school students or older ¥1,000)

There are a total of four types of manholes whose designs feature baby chicks in Ikeda City. See if you can find them all.

See the legacy of the Osaka Expo '70 and feel the healing effects of cute animals.

This cultural park occupies the site of the Japan World Exposition (Osaka Expo), which was held in 1970. Don't miss the "Tower of the Sun," the symbol of the Expo '70 Commemorative Park.

Expo '70 Commemorative Park

Based on the concept of "appealing to your senses," this "living museum" represents a new type of facility that's part aquarium, part zoo, and part art museum.

NIFREL

[Address] 2-1 Senribanpaku-koen, Suita City [Phone] 0570-022060 [Hours] 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., 9:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. or 9:30 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., depending on the day (Doors close 1 hour before closing time.) [Admission] Adults (high school students and older): ¥2,200, Children (elementary and junior high school students): ¥1,100, Infants: ¥650 [Closed] Open year-round *Closed irregularly from time to time.

Enjoy a popular lunch buffet.

Don't miss this extensive buffet, which includes about 100 items. Eat your fill of this hotel's creative cuisine.

Experience nature through shopping, dining, and the Falls Road.

You'll find souvenir shops, cafés, and other businesses in the park. Enjoy a leisurely stroll while sampling maple leaf tempura, a local delicacy, and sweets prepared with citron, a small citrus fruit.

Minoh Falls Road and Minoh Waterfall

[Address] Minoh-koen, Minoh City [Phone] 072-723-1885 (Minoh Transportation and Tourist Information Center)

Tour Japan's first malt whiskey distillery.

Welcome to the hometown of Yamazaki, a single malt whiskey with a worldwide following. Here you can learn about the whiskey by taking a guided tour of the whiskey manufacturing process.

Suntory Yamazaki Distillery

[Address] 5-2-1 Yamazaki, Shimamoto-cho, Mishima-gun [Phone] 075-962-1423 [Hours] 10:00 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. (Doors close at 4:30 p.m.) *Reservations required. [Admission] Yamazaki Distillery Tour: Fees apply, Yamazaki Whiskey Museum (no manufacturing process tour): Free [Closed] New Year's and any time the plant is closed *Closed irregularly from time to time. *Please be sure to make a reservation by phone or online before your visit.

 Pleasure trip itinerary About 4 hours on foot

Itinerary 2 / A walking trip of surprises and warmth

Relax in a park with outstanding scenery.

This park occupies the site of the former castle where the powerful Ikeda family, which ruled this area, resided. The tower-like observation and rest building at the park features panoramic views of Ikeda City. Easter lilies in the park's beautiful Japanese garden bloom in June.

Ikeda Castle Ruins Park

[Address] 3-46 Shiroyamacho, Ikeda City [Phone] 072-753-2767 [Hours] 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. (November to March, open until 5:00 p.m.) *Admission to the park is free. [Closed] Tuesdays and December 29 to January 1 (When Tuesday is a holiday, closed the following day.)

See the park in 360° VR!

Experience the old-fashioned flavor of Osaka's oldest udon noodle shop.

People line up during lunchtime at this udon noodle shop, which was founded in 1864 and is said to be the oldest such shop in the prefecture. Try the famous sasame-udon noodles.

Azuma

[Address] 6-17 Nishihonmachi, Ikeda City [Phone] 072-751-3644 [Hours] 10:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (last order at 3:30 p.m.) [Closed] Tuesdays *Closed irregularly from time to time.

Experience Ikeda's long tradition of comic storytelling (rakugo) by viewing historic materials and watching an actual performance.

In addition to exhibits depicting kamigata-style rakugo, this museum includes an area where visitors can watch DVDs. It also hosts rakugo performances on a regular basis, offering opportunities to experience this interesting art from up close.

Rakugo Museum (Municipal Museum of Kamigata Rakugo)

[Address] 7-3 Sakae-hommachi, Ikeda City [Phone] 072-753-4440 [Hours] 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. *Admission is free. (Tickets are required for rakugo performances.) [Closed] Tuesdays and New Year's

Learn about the founder of Hankyu Railway and the Takarazuka Revue.

Visit a reconstruction of the former residence of Kobayashi Ichizo, an industrialist who's closely associated with Ikeda City. The facility introduces a variety of materials documenting his accomplishments. Gazoku Sansou has been designated a registered tangible cultural property by the Japanese government.

Here he is again! Billiken-san, a mascot of Osaka.

You can find Billiken-san, of Tsutenkaku fame, in Ikeda, too! The statue, which was installed because Tamura Komajiro, who registered Billiken as a trademark, was from Ikeda, has become a symbol of Ikeda as a community of good fortune.

Ikeda's Billiken-san

[Address] At Pocket Park in Sakae-hommachi, Ikeda City [Phone] 072-750-3333 (Ikeda City Tourist Association)

Wishing you the best of luck!

Pleasure trip itinerary

About 6 hours on foot

Itinerary 3 /

Improve your fortune by touring lucky destinations

Increase your ability to compete by visiting a temple considered a "power spot" that confers good luck.

Many people visit this temple, one of Osaka's most famous "power spots" which is known as the "good luck temple" and the "kachi-daruma temple," in search of good luck in competition. Make an offering of a kachi-daruma, or decorate the temple's grounds with a daruma fortune slip. Either way, be sure not to miss the many cute, daruma-themed gifts.

See the temple in 360° VR!

Katsuo-ji Temple

ROAD TO EXPO 2025

Making a success of Expo 2025 Osaka, Kansai, Japan

Ensuring that both prefectural residents and visitors to Osaka all experience the diverse appeal that every area of the prefecture has to offer will help make the 2025 Japan World Expo (Expo 2025 Osaka- Kansai) a success. Visitors can sample Osaka cuisine, experience the area's natural beauty, encounter its history and culture, and enjoy its entertainment. By moving past the COVID-19 pandemic and ensuring everyone enjoys the entire community of Osaka as one giant "museum", we can bring more life to Osaka's tourism industry. Osaka welcomes your high expectations as it undergoes a rebirth.

History of expositions held in Osaka Prefecture

A bridge of hope connecting the present to the future

1970

Japan World Exposition

The Japan World Exposition was held in the Expo '70 Commemorative Park (in Suita City) with a theme of "Progress and Harmony for Mankind." A total of 77 countries participated. It was a symbolic event for Japan, which after a period of high economic growth had become the world's second largest economy. With video phones, electric cars, and other innovations, the venue offered plenty of glimpses into the future.

Trivia

Moving sidewalks were popular.

Moving sidewalks, which were introduced as a way to get around the venue, became popular with attendees. They were subsequently installed at train stations and in underground shopping areas.

A primitive mobile phone debuted.

A wireless phone that was exhibited as a future telephone can be described as a primitive version of today's mobile phones. There was always a line of visitors waiting to try the device, which could actually make calls.

The world's first canned coffee (UCC) was sold at the venue and became a major hit.

UCC Milk Coffee, the world's first canned coffee, was launched in 1969. As soon as being sold at the Expo venue the following year, it became explosively popular and then spread throughout Japan.
